

INSIDE IRAN: Complex Dynamics of Politics, Religion and Global Security

CAIS 2022 PUBLIC LECTURE SERIES

Australian
National University

This Public Lecture focuses on Iran's political dynamics post 2009, just one year before the Arab Uprisings. It addresses Iran's return to more political conservatism, which has had contributed to the Joint Comprehensive Plan of Action, or the Iran Nuclear Deal in 2015. Professor Zweiri will discuss the impact on Iran's economy and foreign policy, in particular Iran's foreign policy in the Middle East and the ongoing confrontation with Israel.

Speaker

Professor Mahjoob Zweiri (Director at Gulf Strategic Studies Centre, Professor Contemporary Politics and History of the Middle East, Qatar University)
