

Sudan Unpacked: Crisis, Ceasefires, and Global Involvement

Australian
National University

As events in Sudan continue to make headlines across the world, you are invited to a special event hosted by the Australian National University's Centre for Arab and Islamic Studies, in conjunction with the Near East Policy Forum.

Unpacking the complex situation, a panel of international experts on Sudan and African Studies will:

- Assess Sudan's escalating political and humanitarian crises
- Scrutinise the durability of regionally and internationally brokered ceasefires
- Evaluate the feasibility of Sudan's peaceful democratic transition
- Examine the role and impact of regional actors — Egypt, Libya, Ethiopia, and the GCC states — on the conflict
- Discuss Australia's engagement and the potential implications for its national interests

Speakers

Dr Adil Abbas, Head of Higher Education at the Australian Industrial Systems Institute and community leader for the Sudanese Diaspora in Australia

Dr Nisrin Elamin, Assistant Professor of Anthropology and African Studies, University of Toronto

Hamid Khalafallah, Development practitioner, researcher and policy analyst based in Khartoum, Sudan

Dr Khalid Medani, Professor of Political Science, Director of the Institute of Islamic Studies, McGill University
