

Career Fair: Pursuing a Career in the Australian Public Service

Graduates from the Centre for Arab and Islamic Studies have pursued a diverse range of meaningful careers and their contribution is helping foster a more harmonious, understanding and interconnected world. The employers continue expressing a very high demand for graduates with strong communication skills and international expertise including the knowledge of the Middle East and Central Asia and competence in Arabic, Persian and Turkish languages. Many of our alumni pursue their careers in the Australian Public Service.

Speakers

His Excellency Mr Ridwaan Jadwat, Head of the Middle East, Africa and Afghanistan Division in DFAT (Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade)
Ms Nigarish Haider, A/g Director - ASEAN-Australia Special Summit Taskforce, Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet
Mr James Turner, A/g Assistant Director, Goods and Government Procurement, Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade
Ms Dipika Nand, Careers Consultant, ANU Careers and Employability Office

Join us to listen to their rich experiences and their career pathways in the Australian Public Service.

Details

Time: Thursday 24th August
1:00pm-2:30pm

Registration required

In-person: Eventbrite
Online: Zoom

Location

In Person

Lecture Theatre, Centre for Arab and Islamic Studies, 127 Ellery Crescent, the ANU
Online via Zoom

Contact

Centre for Arab and Islamic Studies
E — cais@anu.edu.au
P — (02) 6125 4982
W — cais.cass.anu.edu.au/events

Australian National University